

DOVES BY DORAN PALOMA

Doves by Doron Paloma is run by chief designer and president, Doron Hakimian. He grew up in a family of precious gemstone manufacturers, pursuing an architecture degree before discovering a talent for fine jewelry design. His unique eye and passion for architecture and talented drawing skills contributed to his success in the jewelry industry. He received a degree as well as several awards in the field, including the prestigious American Institute of Architects Design Award. His talent for drawing, combined with his graphic interpretation of light, spatial relations, and color forged iconic pieces with a distinct style.

Each of his beautiful jewelry designs begins with penciled sketches and is refined to perfection by Doron in his thorough design process. He combines 18K gold, diamonds, and precious gemstones into timeless designs. Doron Paloma creates unique pieces that push the boundaries of contemporary jewelry. Under his vision, keen eye for detail, and uncompromising craftsmanship, Doves has gained global recognition, industry awards, and has been worn by the red carpet's brightest stars.

