

LANA NGUYEN

Born and raised in Kiev, Ukraine, Lana Nguyen is a dynamic mixed-media artist based in Phoenix, Arizona. Her work is a vibrant celebration of nature and landscapes, blending bright colors and playful designs that reflect the beauty of her surroundings.

Lana graduated from the University of the Incarnate Word, earning a Bachelor of Arts with a double major in Interior Design and Art. This academic foundation provided her with a strong understanding of design principles and artistic techniques, which she seamlessly integrates into her creative practice.

Her artistic repertoire spans a variety of mediums, including alcohol ink, resin, and acrylics. She is renowned for her one-of-a-kind pieces, ranging from vibrant acrylic paintings to intricate alcohol ink collages. Her handcrafted collages are particularly distinctive, featuring hand-colored paper meticulously cut and arranged on wood panels, then sealed with a glossy resin coating. This innovative technique brings texture and depth to her creations, redefining the boundaries of modern art.

Drawing inspiration from Arizona's iconic landscapes and quirky cacti, Lana infuses her work with a sense of place and personality. Each piece tells a story, blending natural elements with a bold, contemporary aesthetic. Her dedication to originality ensures that every artwork is unique, offering collectors and admirers something truly special.

Lana Nguyen's art invites viewers to explore the vibrant intersection of color and texture, making her a standout figure in the Phoenix art community.

